

I don't believe that it's in the best interest of American citizens to have a few mega-corporations as owners of all the media in the United States.

I believe that there should be public hearings on this issue, as it is of major importance in maintaining freedom of information.

Thank you,

Wayne Mosteller